RULES AND GENERAL REGULATIONS

It will be assumed that Exhibitors are fully aware of the Rules and Regulations contained in the Show Schedule and Hackney Year Book.

All Owners/Exhibitors must carry their own Third Party Liability Insurance and a copy of their certificate for each animal included with each entry.

Championship Qualifiers must attend the relevant Championship unless they have a valid reason for non-attendance and accepted by Council before commencement of the Championship.

All drivers, grooms and handlers must be a member of the Hackney Horse Society.

It is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor not to enter under a judge who has bred their animal.

It is the responsibility of the parent or guardian of any child of compulsory school age (last Friday in June after their 16th birthday) to have obtained the necessary documentation from their school for the child to attend.

Stabling is only provided for animals entered in Breed & Harness classes of the Hackney Show and Hackney sections of the S.E.A.S. Show.

(a) Entry Fees. Entries close on 12th May 2017, at £15.00 per class. By the above dates entry forms must be complete in every respect and contain all the particulars required by the regulations.

(b) Stabling. Exhibitors wishing to be allocated stabling for the Show must make application on their entry form. Boxes will only be booked for the period of the Show at £100.00 per box. They will be available from Saturday, 3rd June until Friday, 9th June. The stables will be numbered by the Ground Steward and a plan of the stables with their numbers will be displayed on the showground. No alterations are permissible on the showground. All animals staying on the showground overnight must be stabled in the Society's loose boxes. ON NO ACCOUNT CAN ADDITIONAL SNIFFER BOARDS OR OTHER MODIFICATIONS BE MADE TO THESE STABLES WITHOUT PRIOR CONSULTATION WITH WOODHOUSE. The skips provided must be used for manure. Please place all other waste in the relevant areas.

If any horse or pony is found left in a lorry overnight the animal will not be allowed to compete at the Show and the Exhibitor will have to pay the cost of a stable on the showground (£100.00). Failure to do so will eliminate the Exhibitor from competing at future Shows.

(c) Caravans/Lived in Horse Boxes. For Exhibitors and officials only one caravan/lived in horse box site pass can be obtained for the period of the Show at £100.00 (incl. VAT). For non-exhibitors the pass will be £175. If an exhibitor does not actually show they will be invoiced a further £75 after the show. If a pass is not purchased prior to the show double fees will be charged at the show.

An exhibitor must forfeit and pay to the Executive Show Committee a sum of £100 as and for liquidated damages, if the animal or animals entered by him for the Show is, to his knowledge (at the time it is sent into the showground) suffering under any contagious or infectious disease.

5. Judges. Shall have the power to withhold any prizes for want of merit or competition in any class, and the Society reserves the right to vary or add to the names of judges as they deem necessary. For the George Worboys and the Hurstwood Special Trophies and awards in the Amateur Driving Classes separate independent and unnamed judges will be chosen.

6. Challenge Cups. The following conditions apply to the Challenge Cups offered, they must be won three times in succession or four times in all by the same exhibitor before becoming his absolute property, unless otherwise stated.

Exhibitors who have won Challenge Cups/Trophies outright must inform the Society's Secretary by the 1st January if they do not intend representing or replacing the Cup/Trophy for the necessary alterations to be made in the schedule.

Perpetual Cups/Trophies. These cannot be won outright and remain in the property of the Society at all times.

Heritage Cups/Trophies. These cannot be won outright, remaining the Society's property as a measure for retaining its History for the future.

General Rules. Should any exhibitor to whom a cup has been awarded, be disqualified then the cup shall go to the reserve number, and it shall not be counted as won by the exhibitor of the animal disqualified. The second prize animal in the classes from which the cup winners are taken will be brought into the ring to compete with the cup horses for the reserve number.

Cups must be returned to the Secretary before 10.00 a.m. on the Monday of the start of the Annual National Breed Show. If the cups are not returned by this date and time in a clean and pristine condition, you may not be allowed to take home any cups that you win in the future.

7. Foaling. Mares exhibited in Classes 7 and 17 must be in-foal, or must have a foal at foot, in which case the foal (if alive) must be brought into the ring with the mare. If in-foal a veterinary certificate must be forwarded with the Show entry form that the animal is in-foal, and the prize money and cup shall be withheld until the mare be certified as having produced a living foal in the year of the Show. A Veterinary Certificate is required if a Mare is shown that has lost her foal. No mare shall compete in these classes whose last date of service makes her due to foal after 1st December 2017. The last date of service, with the name of the stallion, must be stated. The judges will award a second reserve in judging the Brood Mare Class.

- 8. Entries in Excess of Accommodation. In case the total entry received exceeds the accommodation at their disposal, the committee reserves to themselves the right to accept only one entry in each class from the same exhibitor, such exhibitor to then inform the committee, which of his horses he elects to withdraw. The committee also reserves the right to return any entry prior to the opening of the Show.
- 9. Correctness of Entry. Every animal entered for a prize must be the bona-fide property of the exhibitor at the date of closing of entries, but if an animal entered for the Show is subsequently sold with engagements it can be exhibited by the new owner provided that the transfer has been duly recorded in the Society's records. It is incumbent on exhibitors to prove the correctness of their entry forms, if called upon by the Show Committee or the stewards to do so. If the exhibitor should fail to do this the Secretary shall report the facts of the case at the next Executive Show Committee Meeting, and the committee shall determine whether the exhibitor shall be entitled to any prize won, and whether he shall be allowed to exhibit in future at the Shows of the Society.
- 10. Objections. Objections of any kind must be made in writing, signed and delivered to the Secretary before the close of the Show, accompanied by a deposit of £50.00 which deposit will be forfeited to the funds of the Society at the discretion of the Show Committee, if the protest be not sustained to the satisfaction of the committee. The objector must state the particular and precise character of his objection. The decision of the Show Committee and stewards shall be final.
- 11. Disqualification. In case of any prize animal being disqualified, the winner of the next succeeding prize in that class shall take the prize that was awarded to the disqualified animal.
An exhibitor who, by any trick, device, or other means attempts to mislead the judges, stewards, or veterinary surgeons, may, on the case being proved to the satisfaction of the Show Committee, be disqualified from taking any prize, and also forfeit any prize already won at the show in question.
It shall be in the power of the Show Committee to recommend to the full Council that an exhibitor contravening this rule, and being a member of the Society, be expelled from the Society, in accordance with the existing Articles of Association.
- 12. Absence. To avoid disarranging the boxes, exhibitors are earnestly desired to intimate to the Secretary, ten days before the opening of the Show, the withdrawal of any of their horses.
- 13. Charge of Exhibits. All horses will be treated as being in the sole charge of the exhibitors before, during and until their removal from the Show, and the Society will not be responsible for mis-delivery, damage, loss or injury arising from accident or any other cause.
- 14. Damage. The exhibitor of any horse which shall cause or occasion any damage or injury whatever, shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against all actions or claims. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to or occasioned by, or arising from any animal exhibited by him, and for the description as given in the catalogue; and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Hackney Horse Society and the South of England Agricultural Society against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.

Neither the Society nor any of its officers or servants shall be in any way responsible or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause or circumstance whatever) to exhibitors or their servants, or to any animal or article exhibited, or property brought into the showground, or otherwise anything else in connection with, or arising out of, or attributable to, the Society's show, or these or any conditions or regulations prescribed by the Society in relation thereto.

All Exhibitors must carry their own Third Party Liability Insurance and a copy of their certificate for each animal included with each entry.

15. Refusal of Entries, etc.

- (a) The Executive Show Committee reserve the right to accept or to refuse any entries or entry, the property of any exhibitor, without being liable for compensation: to remove any animal from the Show, and to return any entrance fee without being liable for compensation. The Executive Show Committee reserves the right to amalgamate any classes.
- (b) No person who shall have been shown to the satisfaction of the Council to have been excluded from exhibiting for prizes at the exhibition of any other society in consequence of having attempted to obtain a prize by giving a false certificate, or by other unfair means, and no person who is under exclusion from any other society for fraudulent practices, shall be allowed to exhibit at this or any other show of the Society

16. Special Instructions to Exhibitors and Servants.

Grooms must be in attendance when requested by the stewards.

Exhibitors will be held responsible to the Executive Show Committee for the good conduct of the servants employed by them.

Exhibitors are warned against the excessive use of bearing-reins, and shoeing their horses unreasonably (see Rule 1).

No stallion shall be removed from his box without a bit in his mouth.

All animals must compete for the Championships for which they are eligible. A valid reason must be given and accepted by Council before commencement of the Championship class if an animal which is eligible will not be exhibiting.

All stallions, mares and geldings must be securely fastened in their boxes. No horse shall be decorated about the head with colours other than the Society's prize rosettes.

The Society reserves to itself the right to have any horse photographed.

It is the responsibility of the exhibitor, to enter the ring displaying his correct number.

Once judging has commenced in any class, exhibitors may not enter or leave the ring if there is a reasonable problem they must ask permission to stay at the bottom of the line until the class is finished.

The stewards shall have the power to order the expulsion of any person, exhibitor, or servant, in their opinion misconducting him/herself on the showground.

The stewards shall prohibit any noisy demonstration, and shall if they deem it necessary, suspend the judging to prevent continuance of the same.

Any special instructions from the stewards of either the Hackney Horse Society or of the South of England Agricultural Society must be carried out.

17. Questions in Dispute. The Show Committee will meet if necessary to hear any question, or settle any dispute, and transact any business that may arise.

Should any question or dispute arise not provided for in the foregoing Rules and Regulations, the decision of the stewards shall be final.

18. Excessive use of the whip and/or voice will be reported to the Council and disciplinary action may be taken.

19. Warming up. Warming up must be in the designated area which will be the collecting ring.

20. Exercising. Exercising can only be done in the collecting ring outside of the show timetable. Exercising is not permitted in any other area.

The Hackney Horse Society Welfare Policy Statement

The welfare of Hackney horses and ponies is of paramount importance to the Society, and any allegations of abuse or mistreatment of animals will be investigated, and if appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against any individuals involved.

The Society has a Duty of Care in all areas of animal welfare, and may refer to and take advice from relevant authorities, or report concerns for further investigation. This would include the RSPCA other animal welfare organisations, veterinary expertise, the governing bodies of Farriers and Harness makers etc.

The Society will also operate a policy of non tolerance of any suspected form of drugging, doping, or the introduction of any substances which may cause the animal discomfort. The Society accordingly reserves the right to blood test any animals participating in our shows or affiliated competition.

Further information can be found in the Society's rules and regulations

Acceptance of this policy is a condition of entry to all shows, classes or affiliated competitions involving the Hackney Horse Society.

If you are aware of any breaches of this policy please inform the Society in writing with as much detail as possible
